

Nicollet County Historical Society

Internship Opportunities

The Nicollet County Historical Society has diverse internship opportunities available during J-Term, semesters, or summer. Choose from the list below, or talk to us about creating your own. Interns will have the chance to do meaningful work important to the Society that matches with their goals and interests. No two internships are the same, because no two interns are the same.

To learn more, contact Ben Leonard at 507-934-2160 or ben@nchsmn.org

Gain valuable curatorial experience working with NCHS archival and artifact collections at the Treaty Site History Center. Accession, document, and care for one-of-a-kind items dating back to the early 1800s. This work is vital to the society, and interns make a huge impact.

St. Peter Herald photo

Spend J-Term working on St. Peter Winterfest! Participate in program planning, fundraising, promotion, graphic design, advertising, media relations, event coordination. Work directly with community leaders. A great resume builder!

Historic sites internships at either Harkin Store or E. St. Julien Cox House. Plan, promote, and produce special programs and activities, give tours, or research and produce interpretive manuals.

Research, construct and an exhibit or educational lesson on a wide range of topics. Learn marketable research, writing, and design skills while pursuing your own personal interests.

St. Peter Herald photo

The sky is the limit! Create your own internship or independent study. NCHS is open to working with you to create the opportunity that suits your needs.

